4. Discussed with Mr. Saunders and Mr. Pforzheimer the status in Congress of the appropriation for the CIA building. Agreed that if the Congress gave us the amount now recommended by the Senate, we can begin the building but will inevitably need more funds for which it is probable we shall have to seek a supplemental appropriation. Meanwhile, however, Mr. Saunders will continue his attempts to have the Bureau of the Budget

5. Mrs. Studebaker of the office known as WASHINGTON OFFICE, INC., which represents west coast shipbuilders, called to say that yachting friends on the west coast wanted to know if the Government was taking over the west end of the Catalina Island. She had inquired of the Navy Bureau of Yards and Docks and the Army engineers, who had answered in the negative, but Mr. Figert of the Engineers suggested that she call this office. [redacted] said he has no knowledge of any project to acquire this property.
